

Bob Jackson is a pianist, entertainer, comedian who has been featured at Walt Disney World for more than fourteen years. With a show that features great singa-longs, fast and furious boogie-woogie piano solos (with some foot-stomping ragtime thrown in for good measure), Bob's main gift is to draw in and engage audiences of all ages.

Bob is comfortable performing in venues of any size. Bob's music has taken him all over the world. In addition to having his own show at Disney's Port Orleans Riverside, Bob has performed at all the Disney parks. He has also performed at Universal Citywalk, and Seaworld.

Bob began playing piano, and composing at an early age. He was a music composition major at the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music. Bob studied privately with pianist/composer Dick Hyman.

Bob has been married to his wife Janis for thirty three years. They have two children, Max, 22, and Emilee, 18. They reside in Orlando, Florida.
